

2008 New School Nurse Orientation

July 22, 23, & 24

8:30 AM- 5:00PM EDT

Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House
5353 E. 56th Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46226

This is a 3 day conference for registered nurses who are in the first 3 years of their practice in school nursing.

This program is designed to help new school nurses develop a successful and rewarding professional practice in school nursing.

Learn from experts in school health and school nursing about:

- How to successfully transition into the school nurse role and work environment
- Chronic disease management in a school setting
- Communicable disease management in schools (including immunizations)
- Required health screenings for school-aged children
- Managing the health care at school for students with special health needs
- Child abuse reporting laws and procedures
- Professional legal issues in school health
- The ins and outs of documentation and the development of an Individualized Health Plan

New School Nurse Orientation Fee
$210.00

This fee includes all three days of the conference and the New School Nurse Tool Kit.

Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House

The workshop is being held at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House located on the Northeast side of Indianapolis just minutes from the Interstate, Fort Harrison State Park, and Indianapolis's finest shopping malls. The facility is located on 13 acres of a quiet, beautiful wooded area within walking distance of the Fall Creek greenway. Fatima Retreat House is an environment away from the world that will allow you to relax, unwind and gain some perspective on your new role as a school nurse.

All rooms are single rooms with each two rooms sharing a bath. In keeping with their mission to offer an environment conducive to reflection and spiritual enrichment there are no televisions, telephones or clocks in the sleeping rooms. There are house phones available for guest use in the main and lower level lobby areas.
